© About press coverage

If the venue becomes full, priority will be given to visitors, and reporters may be asked to move. Also, since the shooting spots are limited, we may refuse to take pictures.

There is no press room at the venue, but we will prepare a ticket that allows you to use the workspace in and around the Marunouchi Building.

The press ticket will allow you to watch the entire consecutive video of the day's session after the end of the day's session. You can also watch the archive after the event.

If you use the online meeting matching service "Jublia", you can meet with other event participants online or on-site.
